August 2, 2021

Fort Myers, Fla., August 2, 2021 – Drs. George Negrea, Jennifer Yannucci and Haven Caldwell of Low Country Cancer Care (LCCC) welcome Hematologist/Oncologist Rohit Bishnoi, MD to the community oncology practice. LCCC, an American Oncology Network (AON) partner, has three office locations in Georgia and one office location in South Carolina.

Rohit Bishnoi, MD
Medical Oncologist
Low Country Cancer Care

Dr. Bishnoi is seeing patients in the Savannah clinic. He is Board certified in internal medicine. He is experienced in treating patients with all cancer types and blood disorders with a special interest in cancers of the gastrointestinal and genitourinary tract. He is also experienced in treating non-malignant blood disorders and malignant lymphoma and leukemia.

Dr. Bishnoi obtained his medical education from Sardar Patel Medical College/Rajasthan University in India. He completed his residency in internal medicine at McLaren Regional Medical Center/MSU Program followed by fellowship training at the University of Florida.

Dr. Negrea of Low Country Cancer Care said, "Dr. Bishnoi is heavily involved in scientific research that will benefit our patients, he has published many peer-reviewed articles and presented his clinical findings at regional and international scientific meetings."

AON President & Chief Development Officer Brad Prechtl, MBA said, "We welcome Dr. Bishnoi to AON and Low Country Cancer Care. By adding a fourth oncologist we are better able to offer patients the care and treatment they need close to where they live."

"Dr. Bishnoi has an impressive scientific research background with recent studies published on how COVID-19 impacts cancer care," said AON CEO Todd Schonherz. "He is passionate about changing the perception of a cancer diagnosis from fear to the belief that cancer can be beaten."

Through its partnership with AON, the practice offers home delivery of oral oncolytic medications, 24/7 pharmacy assistance, pathology and laboratory services, care management support and access to clinical trials.

Low Country Cancer Care is a specialized practice devoted to the care of people with cancer and blood disorders as well as prevention and eradication of these types of diseases. We strive to combine the activities of patient care, prevention, education and research to benefit our patients. We are constantly striving to provide advanced treatment and world class medicine, in a warm, compassionate, and personalized environment. Our experienced and highly trained team is dedicated to providing the highest-quality diagnosis, treatment, care and trust for patients. Our goal is to provide care with a human touch.

About American Oncology Network, LLC: (AONcology.com)

American Oncology Network, LLC (AON) is an alliance of physicians and seasoned healthcare leaders partnering to ensure the long-term success of community oncology. Launched in 2018, the rapidly expanding AON network represents 102 physicians and 71 nurse practitioners and physician assistants practicing across 17 states. The executive management team of AON encompasses more than three decades of oncology practice management experience, enabling physicians to focus on what matters most – providing the highest quality care for patients.

The organization provides unique and comprehensive protocols for managing administrative procedures and enhancing ancillary services for its affiliates. AON is able to aggregate volume and attain economies of scale, as it guides its member physicians and practices through the transition to value-based reimbursement models that improve the patient experience and help to reduce the per-capita cost of cancer care.

AON also provides a unique model of physician led, community-based oncology management. With services such as a centralized specialty pharmacy, diagnostics, pathology, fully integrated electronic medical records, a care management team and a variety of financial assistance programs, an alliance with AON ensures that patients' experiences will be at the very pinnacle of cancer care today.
