American Oncology Network and Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA Welcome New Physician

September 5, 2023

Dr. Fiona Mienko joins the community oncology clinic and is accepting patients.

WOODBRIDGE, Va., September 5, 2023 – Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA, a partner practice of American Oncology Network, LLC (AON), is pleased to welcome Board-certified medical oncologist and hematologist Fiona Mienko, MD, to the clinic.

Fiona Mienko, MD
Medical Oncologist
Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA

Dr. Mienko earned her medical degree from the University College Dublin in Dublin, Ireland. She completed an internal medicine residency at Mount Sinai Morningside and Mount Sinai West in New York and then a medical oncology and hematology fellowship at Montefiore Medical Center at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York.

“As a physician, my commitment is to provide compassionate and personalized care to each of my patients,” said Mienko. “Joining Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA enables me to fulfill that mission wholeheartedly. I am eager to work alongside Dr. Chan and the rest of the care team at the clinic.”

Dr. Mienko’s training is vast as she has experience evaluating, diagnosing and treating patients with non-malignant and malignant hematological conditions and solid tumor malignancies. She is currently an active member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology and the American Society of Hematology.

“We are delighted to be bringing a new physician to the clinic,” said Farn Chan, MD, lead medical oncologist and hematologist at Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA. “Dr. Mienko’s experience will help us elevate the care we provide, and by her joining us, we are able to continue being an accessible oncology resource for our community.”

“Congratulations to Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA on expanding the provider team,” said Stephen “Fred” Divers, MD , AON’s chief medical officer. “Dr. Mienko’s exceptional skills and dedication to delivering patient-first care will strengthen the clinic’s ability to deliver high-quality services to their community, further solidifying their unwavering commitment to their patients.”

Cancer & Blood Specialists of NOVA is a partner practice of AON and joined the network in May of 2020. Through the partnership, the clinic and its care team have access to additional clinic and patient services and resources that are essential to effective community oncology care.

About American Oncology Network
The American Oncology Network (AON), an Inc. 5000-recognized company, is an alliance of physicians and seasoned healthcare leaders partnering to ensure the long-term success of community oncology and other specialties. Launched in 2018, the rapidly expanding AON network represents 109 physicians and 86 nurse practitioners and physician assistants practicing across 19 states. The executive management team of AON encompasses more than three decades of oncology practice management experience, enabling physicians to focus on what matters most — providing the highest quality care for patients.

The organization provides unique and comprehensive protocols for managing administrative procedures and enhancing ancillary services for its affiliates. AON is able to aggregate volume and attain economies of scale, as it guides its member physicians and practices through the transition to value-based reimbursement models that improve the patient experience and help to reduce the per-capita cost of cancer care.

AON also provides a unique model of physician-led, community-based oncology management. With services such as a centralized specialty pharmacy, diagnostics, pathology, fully integrated electronic medical records, a care management team and a variety of financial assistance programs, an alliance with AON ensures that patients' experiences are at the very pinnacle of cancer care today.
