

American Oncology Network, Inc. Announces First Quarter 2024 Financial Results

May 15, 2024

First Quarter 2024 Highlights

- Revenue of $364.3 million increased by 20.0% compared to the prior year quarter
 - Patient encounter growth of 7.1% as compared to the prior year quarter
- Added 17 new providers to the AON platform
 - Expanded in Texas and Maryland markets

FORT MYERS, Fla., May 15, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- American Oncology Network, Inc. (NASDAQ: AONC), a leading oncology platform with an innovative model of physician-led, community-based oncology management, today announced financial results for the three-month period ("First Quarter 2024") ended March 31, 2024.

Todd Schonherz, AONC chief executive officer, commented, "We delivered strong revenue growth in the first quarter, continuing our momentum into 2024. During the quarter, we announced a number of acquisitions that meaningfully grew the AON footprint; we expanded in the Texas and Maryland markets, adding 17 new providers to the platform. Our momentum has continued into the second quarter, as we've also announced partnerships expanding our presence in Hawaii and Central Georgia, as well as the launch of Meaningful Insights Biotech Analytics (MiBA), an innovative healthcare technology startup which utilizes data analytics to improve cancer care. These acquisitions and the creation of MiBA allows us to ensure more patients have convenient and accessible cancer care in their communities. We remain committed to delivering the best outcomes for our patients and the highest level of support for our physicians, while creating long-term value for our shareholders."

Three-month periods ended March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023

Revenue was $364.3 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2024, as compared to $303.7 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2023, an increase of $60.6 million, or 20.0%. The overall increase was primarily attributable to increased patient encounters of 7.1% between the comparable periods, driving a $59.7 million increase in patient service revenue. This revenue growth was constrained in part by approximately $4.1 million of incremental implicit price concessions associated with accounts receivable in our legacy billing system as the Company transitioned its billing and collection efforts to a new billing system in the fourth quarter of 2023.

For the three months ended March 31, 2024, cost of revenue increased $76.4 million, or 27.4%, which was primarily driven by higher drug and medical supply costs. Cost of revenue also includes equity-based compensation of $13.3 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2024, with no such costs incurred during the comparable year ago quarter.

Net loss before non-controlling interest was $24.9 million for the first quarter of 2024, as compared to net loss before non-controlling interest of $1.5 million for the first quarter of 2023.

Adjusted EBITDA was $2.0 million for the first quarter of 2024, as compared to $4.1 million for the first quarter of 2023, a decrease of $2.1 million. See "Key Non-GAAP Financial Measures" Adjusted EBITDA table below.

Liquidity, Cash Flow, and Debt

- As of March 31, 2024, we had total liquidity of $132.7 million, composed of cash and cash equivalents of $74.9 million, short-term marketable securities of $30.1 million, $26.7 million of incremental borrowing capacity under the PNC Loan Facility, and $1.0 million of incremental borrowing capacity under the PNC Line of Credit.
- Net cash provided by operating activities was $45.1 million, primarily driven by the deferral of $48.3 million of drug payments that would have otherwise been made in the first quarter of 2024, to the second quarter of 2024, as a result of the Change Healthcare issue. This $48.3 million will reduce operating cash flow during the second quarter of 2024.
- As of March 31, 2024, we had $80.9 million outstanding under the PNC Loan Facility and the PNC Line of Credit was undrawn.

Key Non-GAAP Financial Measures Used to Evaluate Performance

This press release includes the non-GAAP financial measure "Adjusted EBITDA". Management views this metric as a useful way to look at the performance of AONC operations between periods and to exclude decisions on capital investment and financing that might otherwise impact the review of profitability of the business based on present market conditions. Management believes this measure provides an additional way of viewing aspects of AONC's operations that, when viewed with the GAAP results, provides a more complete understanding of AONC's results of operations and the factors and trends affecting the business.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income prior to interest income, interest expense, income taxes, and depreciation and amortization, as adjusted to add back certain other non-cash charges that may be recorded each year, such as stock-compensation expense and non-cash valuation adjustments, as well as non-recurring charges such as revenue cycle transformation costs and transaction costs related to the Business Combination. We believe these expenses and non-recurring charges are not considered an indicator of ongoing company performance. The measures are used as a supplement to GAAP results in evaluating certain aspects of AONC business, as described below. We believe Adjusted EBITDA is useful to investors in evaluating AONC performance because the measure considers the performance of AONC operations, excluding decisions made with respect to capital investment, financing, and other non-recurring charges as outlined above.

AONC includes Adjusted EBITDA because it is an important measure upon which management uses to assess the results of operations, to evaluate factors and trends affecting the business, and to plan and budget future periods. However, non-GAAP financial measures should be considered a supplement to, and not as a substitute for, or superior to, the corresponding measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. Non-GAAP financial measures used by management may differ from the non-GAAP measures used by other companies, including AONC's competitors. Management encourages investors and others to review AONC's financial information in its entirety, and not to rely on any single financial measure. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to net income as an indicator of AONC performance or as an alternative to any other measure prescribed by GAAP as there are limitations to using such non-GAAP measures. These limitations are compensated by providing disclosure of the differences between Adjusted EBITDA and GAAP results, including providing a reconciliation to GAAP results, to enable investors to perform their own analysis of AONC's operating results.

Adjusted EBITDA for recent comparative periods is presented at the end of this earnings release.
