Low Country Cancer Care and American Oncology Network Welcome Dr. Stephen Tiley

August 6, 2024

Board-certified physician Stephen Tiley, DO, joins the physician team.

SAVANNAH, GA., Aug. 6, 2024 — Community oncology practice Low Country Cancer Care, a partner practice of American Oncology Network (AON) (OTCQX: AONC), is pleased to welcome Board-certified physician Stephen Tiley, DO, to its physician care team. He will work alongside Drs. George Negrea, Jennifer Yannucci, Haven Caldwell, Asit Jha, and Sreekanth C. Reddy.

Stephen Tiley, DO
Medical Oncologist
Low Country Cancer Care

Dr. Tiley is a Board-certified medical oncologist and hematologist. He obtained his medical education from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed his residency in internal medicine at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. He then completed his fellowship training in oncology and hematology at East Carolina University Vidant Medical Center. Dr. Tiley is experienced with all types of solid tumors, hematologic malignancies, and benign hematologic conditions.

“I am excited to join the physician team at Low Country Cancer Care,” said Dr. Tiley. “Low Country Cancer Care is known for providing exceptionally innovative patient care and its high standards align with my personal patient care goals, making it an easy decision to join the team.”

The Low Country Cancer Care team now includes six medical oncologists providing the highest quality of care, with state-of-the-art technology, and the latest advances in clinical research and therapies across eight locations in Georgia and South Carolina. The practice is committed to providing the communities it serves with innovative cancer care that is delivered holistically based on research and evidence-based medicine. Low Country Cancer Care cancer patients have access to a diverse range of services for diagnosis, treatment, survivorship, and patient support that are close to home, eliminating the need to travel long distances to receive care.

“We are honored to welcome Dr. Tiley to Low Country Cancer Care,” said Low Country Cancer Care medical oncologist George Negrea, MD. “He brings a wealth of knowledge and commitment to delivering best-in-class care that will help further our already-established reputation for delivering a highly personalized and quality patient experience. We are eager to begin collaborating with him.”

“On behalf of AON, I am excited to welcome Dr. Tiley to Low Country Cancer Care and the network,” said Stephen “Fred” Divers, MD, AON’s chief medical officer. “Dr. Tiley’s background is impressive, and his commitment to providing quality, patient-centered care in a community-based setting aligns with AON’s patient-first care approach. I am confident that our patients – and our team – will benefit immensely from his expertise.”

Dr. Tiley began accepting new patients at the Savannah, Pooler, and Okatie clinics on August 5, 2024.

For more information about AON, visit AONcology.com. For more information about Low Country Cancer Care, visit lcccsav.com.

###

About American Oncology Network
American Oncology Network (AON) (OTCQX: AONC) is an alliance of physicians and seasoned healthcare leaders partnering to ensure the long-term success and viability of community oncology and other specialties. Founded in 2018, AON’s rapidly expanding network represents more than 240 providers practicing across 21 states. AON pioneers innovative healthcare solutions through its physician-led model, fostering value-based care that improves patient outcomes while reducing costs and expanding access to quality care. AON equips its network physicians with the tools they need to thrive independently while providing comprehensive support, integrated revenue-diversifying ancillary services, and practice management expertise, enabling physicians to focus on what matters most – providing the highest standard of care for every patient. AON is committed to promoting health equity by addressing disparities in cancer care and ensuring that all patients have access to the care they need to achieve optimal health outcomes. With a focus on innovation and collaboration, AON is shaping the future of community oncology. For more information, please visit AONcology.com or follow us on LinkedIn, Facebook, X (formerly Twitter) and YouTube.

About Low Country Cancer Care
We are a specialized practice devoted to the care of people with cancer and blood disorders as well as the prevention and eradication of these types of diseases. We strive to combine the activities of patient care, prevention, education, and research to benefit our patients. Low Country Cancer Care is constantly striving to provide advanced treatment and world-class medicine in a warm, compassionate, and personalized environment. Our experienced and highly trained team is dedicated to providing the highest-quality diagnosis, treatment, care and trust for our patients. Our goal is to provide unsurpassed care with a human touch. Learn more at lcccsav.com.

Contact:
Karen Riley Sawyer
American Oncology Network
Karen.Sawyer@AONcology.com